

CUSTOMIZED EMPLOYMENT—CAREER EXPLORATION

The career services office can help students with job readiness skills, such as writing resumes, developing portfolios for potential interviews, and preparing effective cover letters. This office often provides

Job sampling

Job sampling is an exploration activity where students try a variety of job tasks in a range of work settings. Work with the student to choose businesses that are related to the vocational themes identified in the discovery phase. From